I send my congratulations to all of the participants whether you are a player, volunteer or spectator of the 15th Vancouver International Soccer Festival (VISF) held on July 5 – 7, 2019, at the Empire Fields, Vancouver British Columbia which is organized by the One Team United for Peace & Development Society; know that by participating you are a winner!

I am pleased that by organizing this competition the power of football, the biggest game in the world, will be used to promote the core Canadian values of equality, inclusion, and respect for all. Along with providing multi ethnic athletes, volunteers, and officials this opportunity to participate in these 7V7 soccer matches and your work in supporting grassroots soccer programs in communities this is demonstrating the principals of having fun, living, healthy lives and are utilizing this powerful medium for change and making a difference. You should be proud that your hard work has turned this annual event into Canada's largest multi-cultural soccer festival and in the Canadian multi-cultural spirit, VISF provides local and international guests with an exceptional soccer and cultural experiences that will benefit our city, country, and the world.

Have great matches, perform at the best of your ability but also enjoy this special experience, share it with your friends and use this opportunity to make new friends.

Sincerely,
